in the second		hzet Ge	CLASSIFI Transmire			TOORT NO	25	3 × 1
	COUNTRY.		proved For R Military I		2/10 : CIA-RDP80-00	316A00090 0770008 -	25.	X1
		. /			gargarang kalangganggang and alanggang adapat at "A" of confirming an product, see, expendituden 1970 be	-ca lampatause our samphises de Mariela et la regas le regionalisé comm. Ambier de président des la la	annakan kanakan kanaka
25X1	EVALUATIO	พ		PLACE	OBTAINED		25	5X1
25X1		CONTENT.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	DATE OF C				_DATE PREPARED	16 March	1 1953	may productive in it.
			• •
						. They couple up the country library to couple a 1990 of the subspace of the library l	Name of purposes an ample colours with the displayable. As played, in a state of the colour displayable of the colour disp
1)			CH 100000000
	REMARKS.	encommunication of the second		rate aparam un rencorrentationitàle mile		nge mejapangangangangan pagawangan mendambahan jan 2 a Mataw Angada Mangaban (atawa cartista 144	White the second	ARTHUR PORTS
-			Control of the Contro		A video and the second		Many-coalies resourced deviation tools and physical make Architectures of Production Com-	mg up up 1443
25X1	20-14-14-14-14-14-1A-2-17-17-1	CANAL CANAL CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO				nesent nessen republica annus annus annus and allicer republicans received a see within a	MARKET STATE OF THE STATE OF TH
		an unordising a taken		ner men "ng papay ong til yang bahasankan memberah dan disert				per against the se
							. 2!	5X1
L		25.4						5X1
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	2.	and 2 tr railroad stated t station toward f On 18 Fe equipped Putlitz 4 x 100- wearing From 10 occupied includir cars; as 10 Febru the dire stated 12 JSU	hat, on 10 The troop lathenow.2 bruary, 32 l with radio Kaserne in MM AT guns red-bordere to 19 Febru l by an esti ng some with about 10 JS ad 4 armored lary, 16 pri ection of Ve that 80 T-34 -122 guns, s	he train lef or 12 Februa units left t T-34 tanks, ; 32 x 76.2- "cstock.3 A end an undet d black epau ary, the Sac meted 4,000 artillery a in a movers are then. An inf 1/85 tanks, the resume! Can	were detraint at 4:10 p.m. to ry, tanks were unhe Pritzerbe area 3 SU-76 guns, 22 mm AT guns and 4: 1 2:55 p.m. on 22 cermined number of lets at the Berna troops who wore rand tank insignia. 3 SU-76 guns, 22 mm AT guns and 4: 2:55 p.m. on 22 cermined number of lets at the Berna troops who wore rand tank insignia. 3 SU-76 guns, 2 mm AA gerriers mounting at 25-mm AA guns, 2 arriers, AA machine meer unit and a su	armored scout car x 100-mm AT guns February, 4 x 45 trucks were unlourailroad statio tration camp at 0 ed-bordered black T-34 tanks AA machine guns to the installate of	tzerbe railroad be days, marching s, including 5 were seen in the semm AT guns, baded by troops on 4 25 tanks, including 2 armored scout were observed. On ail, coming from tion until recentles, 10 SU-100 guns, and an undetermind AT guns were in lso stationed them	5X1 5X1 5X1]
25X1	1.	Gds Ten that th went to Comment	k Div on 16 e train went Satzkorn vi of the refe	February wat t to Setzkori in Belzig. For erence repor	or additional into to	prmation on this	ossible that the shipment, see 25	trei 5X1
25X1	2.	Accordi	ng to record	ds on transp m Satzkorn t ds Tank Regt	n on the detraining ortation, a tank of Pritzerbe on 4 of the division	company, presumen Februery. The com	pany, along with denburg, may have	tan
			CLASSI	FICATION S	ECRET/			5X1

Approved For Release 2004/02/10 : CIA-RDP80-00810A000900770008-0

SECRET/

installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Comment. The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held				2 of Rathenow. early February, it appears doubtful whether there was a connection with the exercises of units of the Fourth Cds Mecz Army which took place in the area northeast of Rathenow from 17 to 20 February. 3. Comment. The AT guns observed are fairly definitely believed to belong to the units of the 3d Cds AT Arty Brig carried in the Putlitz Kaserne. See The Fuesilier Kaserne adjoining the Putlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied by the 3d Mecz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KVPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the two installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Comment. The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comment. Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 11th and 162d Tank Regts. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA Alment The shipment was not possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not			, early February, it appears doubtful whether there was a connection with the exercises of units of the Fourth Gds Mccz Army which took place in the area northeast of Rathenov from 17 to 20 February. 3. Comment. The AT guns observed are fairly definitely believed to belong to the units of the 3d Gds AT Arty Brig carried in the Putlitz Kaserne. See The Fuestlier Kaserne adjoining the Putlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied by the 3d Mccz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KWPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied by the 3d Mccz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KWPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied of the Fourth gincorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Comment. The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mccz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comment. Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AMA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AMA regiment. The shipment was not			ted in exerc	ises in th	e area nort	h of Pritzerbe	e and east secretises of units of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army which took place in the area northeast of Rathenow from 17 to 20 February. 3. Comment. The AT guns observed are fairly definitely believed to belong to the units of the 3d Gds AT Arty Brig carried in the Putlitz Kaserne. See The Fuesilier Kaserne adjoining the Putlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied by the 3d Mecz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KVPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied by the 3d Mecz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KVPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the Eggesin Division of the two installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Comments The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comments Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts. The 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. The Sid Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. The shipment was not possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		early Fabruary, it mu	ears doubtfu	nowever, a	there was a	connection w	ith the northeast of Rathenow from 17 to 20 February. 3. Comment. The AT guns observed are fairly definitely believed to belong to the units of the 3d Gds AT Arty Brig carried in the Futlitz Kaserne. See The Fuesilier Kaserne adjoining the Futlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied by the 3d Mecz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KVPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the two installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Comment. The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comment. Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 The heavy weapons mentioned the 25th Tank Div. probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts. probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		exercises of units of	the Fourth G	ds Mecz Ar	my which to	ook place in th	ne area
the units of the 3d Gds AT Arty Brig carried in the Putlitz Kaserne. See The Fuesilier Kaserne adjoining the Putlitz Kaserne to the sast is occupied by the 3d Mecz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KVPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the two installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Comments The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comments Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 Comments Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 The heavy weapons mentioned the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regts. Also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		northeast of Rathenov	from 17 to 2	O February	' o
the units of the 3d Gds AT Arty Brig carried in the Putlitz Kaserne. See The Fuesilier Kaserne adjoining the Putlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied by the 3d Mecz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KVPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the two installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Commenta The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Macz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Commenta Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts, the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not			·	rad and fud	wlw definit	alv helieved	to belong to
The Fuesilier Kaserne adjoining the Putlitz Kaserne to the east is occupied by the 3d Mecz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KVPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the two installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Commenta The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Macz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Commenta Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts, also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not	30	the units of the 3d Gd	guns observ to AT Arta Br	ric carried	in the Put	tlitz Kaserno.	See east is occupied by the 3d Mecz Regt of the Eggesin Division (KVPD) Rostock). With the designation Putlitz Kaserne to the two installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Commenta The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 2l February. 5. Commenta Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. probably belong, among other units, to the 11lth and 162d Tank Regts, also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		r)	e Fuesilier	Kaserne ad	ljoining the	e Putlitz Kase:	rne to the installations, thus reporting incorrect data on the actual occupation of the Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Commenta The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Commentation camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		east is occupied by th	ie 3d Mecz Re	egt of the	Eggesin Div	rision ( KVPD) l	Rostock).
Putlitz Kaserne. 4. Commenta The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Macz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Commenta Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		With the designation P	ntlitz Kaser	ne L	on the cof
Commenta The unloading probably involved units of the unidentified army artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comments Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regts. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not			borring mee	orrect data	t Ou the act	orest occubatoro	M OF SHO artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comment. Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts, the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not
artillery brigade of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army returning from exercises held northeast of Rathenow. The shipment is believed to have been one of the trains which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comment. Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts, the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not	4.	Comments. The up	uloading prob	bably invol	lved units o	of the unident	ified army which, according to records on transportation, went from Rathenow and/or Premnitz to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comment. Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts. the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		antillery brigade of	the Fourth Go	da Mecz Arn	ny returnina	g from exercis	es heid to Bernau on 21 February. 5. Comments Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		northeast of liathenov	, The snipmer	nt is parie	aved to use	e been one or om Rethenov en	d/or Premnitz
5. Comment. Compared with a report of 10 February 1953 the concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts. the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not	,	to Bernau on 21 Februs	rv.	TIPPOT GROTE	,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,, concentration camp in Sachsenhausen appears to be occupied as previously by units of the 25th Tank Div. The heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 11th and 162d Tank Regts, the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not	• of the 25th Tank Div. Ahe heavy weapons mentioned probably belong, among other units, to the 11th and 162d Tank Regts, the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not	5。	Commente Compas	red with a re	eport of 10) February .	1953 probably belong, among other units, to the 111th and 162d Tank Regts, the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 219th (?) AAA Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		concentration camp in	Sachsenhause	en appears	to be occup	pied as previo	ned nures
the 53d Mtrcl Bn, the unidentified tank training battalion and the 217th (7) man Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Bn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		of the 25th Tank Div.	helong emol	ng other m	nits. to th	e 111th and 16	2d Tank Regts.
Regt. also observed equipment of the 194th Engr Sn and the unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 February, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		the 53d Mtreel Bn. the	unidentified	d tank tra:	ining batta	lion and the 2	TACH (1) WWW unidentified motor transport battalion. The AAA shipment observed on 10 repruary, possibly involved units of the above mentioned AAA regiment. The shipment was not		Rock	lalao observo	ed eauinmei	nt of the L	yath Engr on s	ing was possibly involved units of the above mentional associations indicated in reports on transportation.		unidentified motor tra	ansport batt	alion. The	AAA ahipme:	nt observed on imant. The chi	oment was not possibly involved unit	os or une au on transport	ation.	mart wayer roff.	THE STATE OF THE	.p.mozz v mozv mozv
		TIME OF THE PARTY
							•
			•
				:		•
							•
							•
				•

25X1

SECRET,